

The Logics, Ethics, and Epistemology of Economics

11th Austrian Economics Research Seminar

Invited Speakers

Renaud Fillieule

Institut des sciences sociales,
Université de Lille

“A History of the Hayekian Triangle”

Emma Tieffenbach

Università della Svizzera italiana

“Gift vs. Expense”

Université de Lausanne
Anthropole
Salle 3185

Friday, November 28
9h00 - 17h00

Swiss National Science Foundation

The Logics, Ethics, and Epistemology of Economics

11th Austrian Economics Research Seminar

Program

Friday 28, November

- 9h Michael Esfeld, Welcoming words, "Why philosophers should be interested in Austrian Economics"
- 9h15 Yorick de Mombines "The epistemology of money production"
- 9h45 Pierre Fasula "Wittgenstein and Hayek on money and institutions"
- 10h15 Olga Peniaz "Reducing uncertainty as a key role of institutions in Menger's thought"
- 10h45 Coffee Break
- 11h00 Karl Israel "The epistemic and institutional limits of inflation measurement: an Austrian critique of Modern Monetary Theory"
- 11h30 Kristoffer Hansen "Austrian economics, 'Wertfreiheit' and political philosophy: a reply to Slenzok and Dominiak (2024)"
- 12h00 Invited Speaker, Renaud Fillieule "A history of the Hayekian triangle"
- 12h45 Lunch
- 14h00 Ludwig van Den Hauwe "From the philosophy of science to economics: the instrumentalism-realism debate revisited in light of Austrian methodology"
- 14h30 Igor Wysocki "How thin should be the Austrian theory of rationality"
- 15h00 Michael Oliva Cordoba "Barter with oneself"
- 15h30 Coffee Break
- 15h45 Invited speaker, Emma Tieffenbach "Gift vs. Expense"

Swiss National Science Foundation

